Champagne / Sparkling Wine
Pertois Lebrun, Extravertie Blanc de Blancs Extra Brut Aromas of buttered brioche opening up to chalky notes, grapefruit and white-fleshed fruits (Granny Smith apple). Fresh and generous attack, light and integrated effervescence. Fruity, succulent, with a delicious lemon-flavoured acidity and a chalky, elegant and creamy minerality.		$868	$438
White Wine
Genot Boulanger, Savigny Les Beaune Blanc, Vieilles Vignes 2021 Fine nose of small woods and box trees but also of camomile and vegetal aromas. The mouth is supple, round and light bodied. With its delicate acidity, this wine is a perfect match for asparagus!		$1,188	$588
Genot Boulanger, Puligny Montrachet, Les Levrons 2021 The nose presents aromas of lemon (and more lively than that of Puligny-Montrachet Les Paupillots). We perceive notes of thyme, verbena and a perfume of white grapes. On the palate, the wine shines by its minerality (particularly sensitive for a village appellation) with a sumptuous iodized finish. This Puligny is less full bodied but longer than the one from Les Paupillots.		$1,968	$978

Red Wine
Francois Buffet, Volnay 2022 The wines of Volnay have always fine tannins, which makes them supple with good aging potential. Beautiful red ruby color. The bouquet is well defined and very elegant with gracious rose petal notes. The palate is rounded on the entry with silky smooth tannins that are well melted into the wine. There is a velvety touch in the mouth surrounded by a fine acidity and a good grip. Some nice morello cherries and cherry stone notes on the finish.		$998	$498
Francois Buffet, Volnay 1er Cru, Clos des Chenes 2014 The wines of Volnay have always fine tannins, which makes them supple with good aging potential. This cru has a dream terroir. The silt and gravels are abundant which gives a wine of great finesse and a noble texture.		$1,628	$798
